

FMS Case Managers

Seeking DoD and Military Service Case Management Support. Successful candidates will perform full lifecycle Case Management support to include although not limited to the following;

Perform program management, system engineering, logistical support and business case analyses of avionics system reliability and obsolescence upgrades; conduct quantitative and qualitative methodologies to evaluate the impact of system upgrades; perform programmatic support services.

Review and analysis of financial data and products from Information Warehouse, Management Information System International Logistics (MISIL), Defense International Finance System (DIFS) and loading FMS case information data into Defense Security Assistance Management System (DSAMS).

Assist with development, review, analysis and update of program documentation in response to customer inquiries. Provide recommendations for preparation of Statements of Work (SOW), Statements of Objective (SOO) and Performance Based Supportability Specifications meeting customer requirements.

Collect, compile and analyze projects, and cost data for FMS aircraft engineering, financial and logistics support for incorporation into team work plans, data calls, and supporting financial documentation.

Provide support of Procurement Initiation Documents including status tracking, management procurement schedules, and support documentation.

Provide programmatic technical assistance to maintain appropriate system software and documentation libraries and to facilitate retrieval. Maintain an automated record of library or database contents reflecting delivered hardware and software versions.

Candidates will possess;

Bachelors' Degree from an accredited college or university

3 years of documented experience in FMS Case Management

US DoD security clearance