

Foreign Language Instructors

Alexandria-based Defense Contractor is seeking qualified foreign language instructors proficient in Arabic (MSA), Pashto, Dari, Sudanese, Iraqi, Moroccan and other native dialects for possible current and future assignments.

Qualifications include;

Language proficiency must be to that of an educated native speaker.

The instructor must also have a working knowledge of English.

Successful candidates will have documented success in the following:

- Conducting classroom foreign language instruction
- Development of language course materials,
- Providing instructional work to improve the language proficiency of students.
- Understanding of military terminology is a plus

B.S. degree and at least 2 years of formal classroom instruction are required.

Other language services (translation/interpretation) and travel (field trips/in-country exercises) may be required.

References and documented classroom experience must accompany resume for consideration.

Most Positions are Outside of the US