Culmen International Supports Humanitarian Efforts in Puerto Rico

Alexandria, Virginia, December 2017 - Culmen International supports various local charities, humanitarian, and military non-profits through corporate philanthropy and individual employee volunteer efforts. Culmen employees are encouraged invest in charities through paid volunteer leave, matching donations, and corporate events.

In December 2017, Culmen participated in "Adopt-a-Family In Puerto Rico" program. Through this program Culmen employees donated food, toiletries, clothes, household items, and toys for a family devastated by Hurricane Maria in Aguada, Puerto Rico (the Coastal Valley of the West region). Culmen committed to send five monthly care packages to the same family for all of 2018.

July 2018 Update.

Culmen employees continue to collect and distribute necessary items for a family of six in Puerto Rico. All of the collected items have been donated and packaged by Culmen staff. To-date seven shipments have been sent.
