Culmen International Awarded $150 Million Single-Award Defense Threat Reduction Agency Threat Reduction Logistics Services Contract

Alexandria, Virginia, February 7, 2019 - Culmen International, a leading provider of technical, operations and management services, supporting clients worldwide with extensive experience operating in over 100 countries on six continents, announced today it has been awarded an indefinite-delivery/indefinite-quantity (IDIQ), single-award Threat Reduction Logistics Services (TRLS) contract with a ceiling of $150 million to support the Defense Threat Reduction Agency's (DTRA), Cooperative Threat Reduction (CTR) Program.

The TRLS contract will support DTRA's mission of enabling DoD, the U.S. Government, and International Partners to counter and deter Weapons of Mass Destruction and Improvised Threat Networks.

"Culmen looks forward to contributing to the success of the CTR mission by providing efficient and effective logistics support for CTR programs throughout the world," Culmen's CEO Dan Berkon says on the contract win. "This program represents a continuation of 14 years of Culmen support to DTRA, and we are honored to be entrusted with this important new role."

Under this contract, Culmen will provide logistics, language services and surge support across CTR's portfolio including Chemical Weapons Destruction (CWD), Global Nuclear Security (GNS), Strategic Offensive Arms Elimination (SOAE), Biological Threat Reduction Program (BTRP) and the WMD Proliferation Prevention Program (PPP). The work will be performed at various locations in the US and abroad.
